It is one of the best apps for Android to find the password for a router. You just need to scan all the available networks near you and select the network you want to know the password. This app hacks password for a router using WEP and WPA encryption. This app can find the password for any WiFi network if its default password and SSID isn't changed. This app hacks network with 100% accuracy and if you try to hack a network in the center of the major cities, there is a bright chance that some of the networks around you will already be in the Router KeyGen database.

WiFi PASS

This app is used to hack routers of JAZZTELL and WLAN type. This is another great android app that is used to hack WiFi popularly. Like Router KeyGen, it can also hack any network with its SSID in the database and the default password isn't changed since the router has installed. However, this app hacks password with 70% accuracy and is commonly used by users living in Spain.

ANDRODUMPPER

This is a fairly new app and totally free to use. You can hack any WiFi using this app. Unlike other apps in this list, this app hacks a network by attacking its WPS Protocol. ANDRODUMPPER is the best app to hack a WiFi. You scan the available networks around you, and it will show you username and MAC address of the available networks. Seeing their signal strength and security level, you can choose a network and hack it by Root Way or No Root. If you decide Root Way, you can Root your device by finding a Root app in the Play Store.

HHG5XX WEP Scanner

This is a superb app to hack routers of Huawei model especially the HHG5XX model as the name depicts. This app can find passwords to almost all WiFi devices of Huawei model, by using the mac2wepkey algorithm. This model of router is very common, so it is handy to have this app installed to hack into a network.
