Many people who can build a house with two floors, but not many people can make the concept of minimalist home in accordance with the state of the land and also the needs of the family. Therefore we would like to invite you to read some more helpful information that can be used by readers in designing or redecorating your home.

And here are the tips that will be given to you who are curious about the image model house 2 floor modern minimalist latest in 2016.

1. Make upstairs solid

When building a house two floors, that must be considered is the 2nd floor is sturdy. Because otherwise, if there is a shift in the soil under the house can make you experience problems such as slanted, span collapsed and many more. So make the second floor is strong and can sustain the burden for decades, created the concept essentially the same as the 1st floor so you can have a strong and solid home without having to worry about going to collapse.

2. Upstairs minimalist design

Second, consider the design on 2 floor. If you apply a minimalist design, the second floor was not separated from this concept. Therefore you can think well, it will be made as to what the concept of the 2nd floor with minimalist patterns. Although the second floor was great and room enough for a couple, you can still design with minimalist shape a unique and comfortable place to live.

3. Types of ladder to be selected

And the latter is the selection of stairs. When you decide to make a house with several floors, at least 2 floor certainly you need a ladder to connect from one floor to another. Thus you should be looking for a ladder according to the condition of the house, the concept of home as well as the wishes of the family.

In selecting the image model house 2 floor modern minimalist latest in 2016, you should be able to determine one form or design of the stairs in the house is suitable or that could favor the condition of your home. Like what? Let's refer to the information below.

1. Concrete stairs

For concrete stairs, more commonly used for home with simple and powerful concept. Because concrete is able to hold up for decades, those who love the simple things will definitely choose the concrete stairs because it does not require much, just made staircase with cement and sand and then be strong and sturdy ladder.

2. Wood stairs

As for you who like something unique and ethnic, would certainly prefer a wooden staircase. You can choose the type of wood that will be used for the stairs. Certain types of wood are good and very strong to be used as a staircase, especially wood color shades can support the interior of your home.

3. Iron ladder

Well, this is actually an iron ladder rarely used for home, because it might be considered a bit dangerous. But there's nothing wrong if you make a concrete staircase with iron handrail. Perhaps this is more suitable for housing at this time.

4. ceramic stairs

And the last is the ladder of ceramics. Those who use the stairs of ceramics is that they are happy with something luxurious and attractive look. Ceramic give a different touch to the house which has a minimalist concept, let alone color ceramic assortment of this could be one way to keep your room come alive.

Of the four types of steps that have been given to you, Which stair design that will be your choice in meeting the minimalist house two floors?

There are still some things that we want to convey about the image model house 2 floor modern minimalist latest in 2016, not only discuss the second floor and the stairs, we also want to provide solutions to the problems that exist so far.

What if they had wanted to make a minimalist home garage? Is it not interfere with the concept of a minimalist home? Find the answers below.

If you want to make the garage into the house, then the note is considered in measuring the existing soil, if it were possible to build a garage with an area of land for a pretty good, then you can use this land as a garage.

Because usually the 2nd floor was able to accommodate a lot of space and stuff so not all items charged on the 1st floor, so it can be made the garage next to the house for storage of vehicles and goods unused.

But if you do not have the rest of the land area is large, then our advice is to make a carport in front of the house by closing the canopy. Do not forget to buy iron railings as a safety so that the vehicles remain safe house. You can buy a special canopy carport, then ordered trellis rather high so it is not visible in your home. This is very helpful in maintaining the security of the house.

Currently there are many people who use a carport due to the limited land in the township or housing. To work around this, simply by providing a canopy and trellis, be flexible garage that can be used anytime.

If you wish, outdoor carport immediately create a comfortable and safe for the placement of your vehicle. So no need to bother anymore to think of laying the vehicle especially for car models that require fairly large room.
